The Fastest Growing DVD, CD and Blu-ray Retail Catalog

Connecting Content with Consumers Volume 6 Issue 19

This week's releases finds the irreverent comedy from Stephen Falk "You're the Worst Season Two" going live for retailers as well as searing documentaries from FilmRise, National Geographic and HBO. Classic film fans will take interest in "Marilyn Monroe Declassified" coming from FilmRise- much has been written about the life of Monroe and this documentary digs deeper into the speculation about her untimely death. The film is available on DVD and Blu-ray and ships on 9/27. Film Rise also brings Allied Vaughn retailers the Special Directors Cut of "The Witness", the highly acclaimed film of apathy and uproar over the murder of Kitty Genovese.

Don't forget to check out the Coming Attractions section, there's more horror and thrills coming from our studios for October!

Editors Note: Warner Archive Correction

In our last newsletter, we listed Warner Archive within a list of Allied Vaughn partner studios who are releasing new titles on Blu-ray and are utilizing Allied Vaughn's Blu-ray MOD BD-R disc duplication technology. To be clear, Warner Brothers films and television programming on Blu-ray discs are manufactured via the traditional injection molding replication process. We apologize for any confusion this may have caused collectors and consumers.

FOX Television Releases "You're the Worst S2"

024543315384 You're The Worst: The Complete Second Season 2016 In the second hilarious season of this audacious and witty comedy series, music biz PR rep Gretchen (Aya Cash) and struggling novelist Jimmy (Chris Geere) move in together. As domestic and career challenges take their toll on the cynical couple, Gretchen's depression inspires her to stalk her more together neighbors. And a visit from Jimmy's trashy, unsupportive family proves that for all his faults, Jimmy's the classiest one of the bunch. Meanwhile, Edgar (Desmin Borges) engages in the world's most annoying art form: improv comedy, and Paul (Allan McLeod) leaves Lindsay (Kether Donohue), while part of him stays behind. Stars Chris Geere; Aya Cash; Desmin Borges; Kether Donohue

HBO Releases "A Girl in the River: The Price of Forgiveness" Pakistani Documentary

888574432850 A Girl in the River: The Price of Forgiveness 2015 The 2016 Academy Award® Winner for Best Documentary Short, this documentary follows the story of Saba, a young woman from the Punjab region of Pakistan, who was shot and left for dead by her father and uncle after marrying Qaiser, a man once promised to her by her family. Told through the lens of a true love story, the film is a scathing examination of the contradictions between modernism and tradition within Pakistani society, as Saba struggles with pressures to "forgive" the relatives who tried to kill her - a pronouncement that would set them free. In this masterful work of high-risk journalistic storytelling, award-winning filmmaker Sharmeen Obaid-Chinoy (Saving Face) uncovers the complex and violent forces faced by women in Pakistan, particularly as it relates to human rights and family honor. Asad Jamal, Saba

Film Rise New BD & DVD Releases

191091165850 Marilyn Monroe Declassified

191091165867 Marilyn Monroe Declassified (BD) 2016 Philippe Mora, C.O. Erickson, Holly

Synopsis: Marilyn Monroe Declassified "Marilyn Monroe Declassified" balances the image of the blonde bombshell icon we thought we knew with information about her revealed in newly declassified FBI and CIA files. Here is the proof that her troubles were not all the product of her upbringing in an orphanage, abuse of prescription drugs and failed marriages. Beginning with her wedding to Communist-leaning playwright Arthur Miller (for whom she converted to Judaism), she was tailed, targeted and tormented by the FBI, CIA and Mafia - and ultimately, through affairs with powerful men, she was unwittingly caught in the middle of a vendetta of lethal forces. Dead at age 36, just months after singing "Happy Birthday, Mr. President" at JFK's extravagant party, she was officially listed as a "probable suicide." The film makes a powerful case for the fact that the official conclusion was wrong. This DVD features an interview with Greg Schreiner and Pierre Vudrag, Paul Davids on "Bigger Questions" along with English subtitles for the deaf and hearing-impaired.

885444776540 The Witness - Special Director's Edition

witnesses watched her being murdered from their apartment windows for over half an hour - and did nothing to help. The death of Kitty Genovese, 28, quickly became a symbol of urban apathy. THE WITNESS follows the efforts of her brother, Bill Genovese, as he attempts to uncover the truth buried beneath the story. In the process, he makes startling discoveries about the crime that transformed his life, condemned a city and defined an era. "NYT Critics' Pick" - The New York Times "The movie is as gripping as true-crime procedurals "Serial" and "Making a Murderer," but with more intimacy and heartache." - The Washington Post "Extraordinary...The movie's one reenactment - an ingenious experiment in forensics and social science - unites drama, journalism, and first-hand experience in a masterstroke of pure cinema." - The New Yorker "[A] powerful movie...its greatest triumph is that for a brief time it resurrects Kitty Genovese, and lets us see her as a person." - RogerEbert.com "The 20 Best Documentaries of 2016 So Far." - The Playlist This Special Edition features surround sound, the official "The Witness" trailer, Bill's investigation, special interview with Bill, Bill Finds Out More About Kitty, Q&A, exclusive investigative materials such as trial transcript and detective reports; English subtitles for the deaf and hearing-impaired. Kitty Genovese, William Genovese
