HBO releases Bright Lights- Debbie Reynolds-
Carrie Fisher Documentary

888574489830 Bright Lights: Starring Carrie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds 2016 An intimate portrait of two of Hollywood's most fascinating personalities, Bright Lights: Starring Carrie Fisher and Debbie Reynolds has become, poignantly, both a requiem and celebration of the two movie icons, who sadly and unexpectedly died one day apart in December 2016: Star Wars actress/author Carrie Fisher and her mother, Singin' in the Rain star Debbie Reynolds. Shot mainly inside the Beverly Hills compound where both Fisher and Reynolds lived (their two houses were connected by one walkway), the film captures the unique chemistry and eccentricity that bound these two generations of Hollywood royalty. Given unusual access to each woman's home and life, directors Alexis Bloom and Fisher Stevens captured the quicksilver wit and intelligence shared by both women as they orbited around each other, living separate lives but kept close by the gravitational pull of love and family. Stars Debbie Reynolds, Carrie Fisher, Todd Fisher

Indie Rights New Releases on DVD and Blu-ray

Indie Rights brings Sole Proprietor to retail along with a full catalog of DVD's and Blu-ray titles, check out the buzz

"As a full length film running at one hour and thirty-eight minutes Sole Proprietor is a beautifully made Action drama that gloriously showcases how a Independent film should be made and truly brought the Spy movie genre back after so many James Bond clone films saturated the market. If you love that sort of film and are finely wanting to see an American spy who is as nuanced as James Bond and as brutal as Jason Bourne I cannot recommend Sole Proprietor strongly enough. I give the film a outstanding five out of five stars. It is a true gem for the Independent community." FILM FERVOR.com

818522016092 Sole Proprietor 2016 "The sexy, mysterious neo-noir SOLE PROPRIETOR combines a dreamlike narrative with gritty realism, exploring themes of subjugation, loyalty, and the transcendence of love and sacrifice, in a world of cruel nihilism. In a desolate, shabbily furnished loft apartment in Chinatown former CIA contractor Crowley arrives from the other side of the world. He has paid a large sum of money to purchase a new identity. He is ready to start over. However, the Handler explains the terms and the deal has changed. In lieu of money, new credentials will be furnished upon the completion of a task, the parameters of which have yet to be determined or defined. No details, no timeline, no choice.

Days go by so Crowley finds Sophie, a prostitute on the internet. He goes to her and they have something unique. Something unusual, when they are together. Sophie knows she can get to him. He is exactly the man she needs. Sophie needs a favor. Someone she cares about is in trouble, and she's willing to risk everything to get her loose. The authorities are no good, because the authorities are the perpetrators. Sophie knows how to get what she wants. Especially from simple men like Crowley.

SOLE PROPRIETOR is the story of a disparate group of people with no place in the world, struggling to take back their lives from the corrupt authorities that control them." 91:00 Insurgent Pictures Dan Eberle; Alexandra Hellquist; Alexandra Chelaru; Nick Bixby

Go Cruising with The Sailing Channel DVD's

818522016351 Get Ready to Cruise 2005 On board Taleisin-the boat that has been their home for over 65,000 miles of voyaging - Lin and Larry demonstrate the techniques that have kept them safe and comfortable. Below deck, Lin describes galley upgrades, table design ideas, comfortable seating arrangements, and ways to improve ventilation. On deck, Lin and Larry show how sail and ground-tackle handling can be made easier for even the smallest crewmember. Learn about sun protection, rain collection, and line handling, advice on buying and storing provisions and hints for keeping you and your crew dry, warm, clean, and well rested. Come along and share in some of the secrets that, even after forty years afloat, make the Pardeys eager to keep cruising, "...As long as it's fun."

818522016368 Get Ready to Cross Oceans 2005 So you feel confident with cruising local waters and are thinking of setting off across an ocean. Before you start planning, join Lin and Larry Pardey on board Taleisin in Fremantle, Australia, as they demonstrate gear storage for offshore voyaging, dinghy choices, warping out a stern anchor, proper life-raft storage, storm trysails, sail repairs, and other valuable hints to help you prepare. Then voyage along with them on a classic trade-wind passage across the Indian Ocean toward Africa, with stops at Cocos (Keeling) Atoll, the quiet island of Rodrigues, and the remote French colony at Réunion. Weather planning, landfall considerations, wind vanes, sail choices, and crew comfort are only a few of the subjects covered. Shot in Fremantle, Australia; at sea during their Indian Ocean passage; and near their home on Kawau Island, New Zealand.

818522016375 Cruising has No Limits 2008 Skimming before caressing tradwinds, savouring tropical landfalls, evading stormy seas - such is the image of the cruising lifestyle, but it can be so much more. Join Lin and Larry Pardey, winners of the CCA Far Horizon Award as they recount some of their most memorable adventures during more than 40 years of cruising. Learn how they planned and executed a seven-month ""Champagne Safari on a Beer Budget"", outfitting a 4X4 to reach remote corners of Southern Africa. Share their memories of campfire evenings with Kalahari Bushmen, life in a sculptors commune in Zimbabwe's northern reaches, and days of animal watching at waterholes far from game reserves. Then voyage onward with them into a unique eight-month long island encounter with nine Brazilian families who dreamed of their own offshore adventures. Finally, sail north through the Atlantic to Ireland's music-filled shores and a summer of history, classic sailing, and friendship. Along the way you'll learn some of the truisms that could help you get out adventuring sooner and more enjoyably - whether on the land or on the water. You'll also come to know more about this longtime cruising couple who have been dubbed ""The Enablers"" because of their enthusiasm and willingness to share their secrets for exploring the far corners of the world on a limited budget."

818522016382 Storm Tactics 2002 The most watched video about handling heavy weather, Storm Tactics delivers the skills you need to manage storms with confidence. It's the next best thing to having Lin and Larry Pardey onboard, coaching you on storm tactics as the seas build and the rigging howls. With over 200,000 miles of blue water voyaging under their keel, Lin and Larry Pardey are recognized as the sailing world's most experienced and knowledgeable cruising couple. In Storm Tactics, they provide a detailed look at the techniques and gear that have kept them safe at sea. "... I wanted to show how the sailor's safety valve, heaving-to, works and the slick it creates. It's hard for people to imagine the almost magic effect of a slick as it saps the power of breaking waves...." - Larry Pardey. Includes footage of Lin and Larry rounding Cape Horn in Taleisin, their 29.5 foot Lyle Hess designed engineless wooden cutter.

818522016399 Cost Control While You Cruise 2012 This 64-minute HD sailing how-to documentary answers the questions: "What does it actually cost to cruise?" and "How do you keep from blowing the budget you set?"
