" Devastated by an epidemic of addiction, Houston faced the reality of burying and locking up its young people at an alarming rate. And so in one of the largest cities in America, visionary counselors, law school dropouts, aspiring rock musicians, retired football players, oil industry executives, and church leaders came together to build the world's largest peer-driven youth and family recovery community. Independently filmed over the course of two years, GENERATION FOUND takes an unprecedented and intimate look at how a system of treatment centers, sober high schools, alternative peer groups, and collegiate recovery programs can exist in concert to intervene early and provide a real and tested long-term alternative to the "War on Drugs." It is not only a deeply personal story, but one with real-world utility for communities struggling with addiction worldwide." 84:00 Directed and Produced by Greg Williams

Flicker Alley Releases "London Symphony"

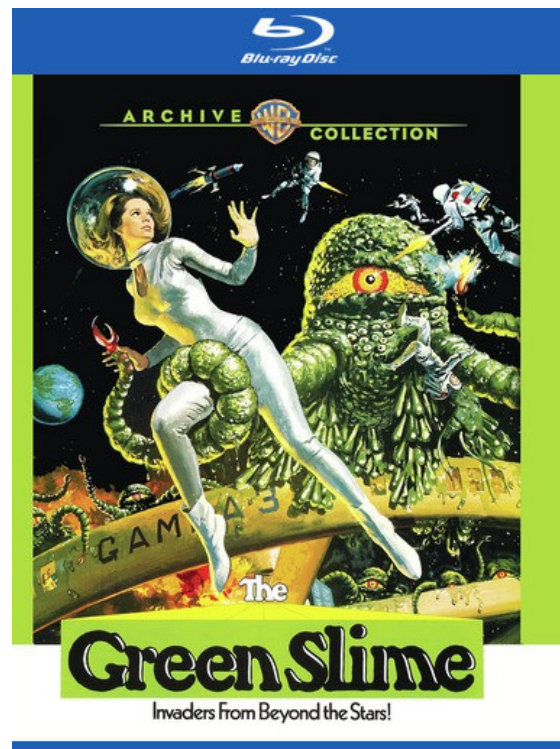

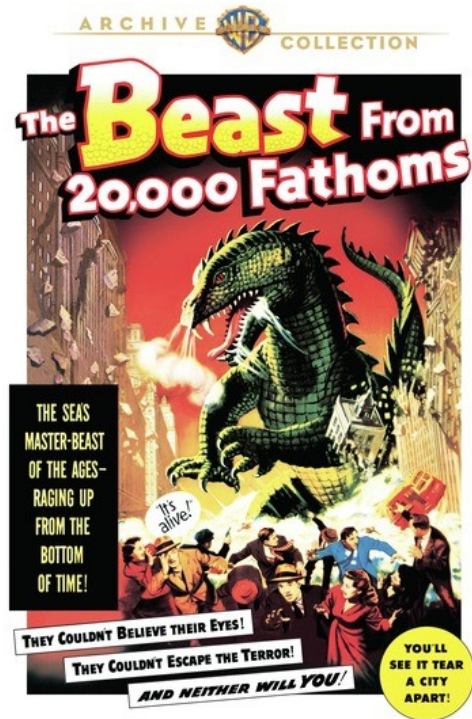

A stunning achievement as Flicker Alley and Disobedient Films brings to AV Retailers, London Symphony, a NEW silent film on the beauty that is London, England.

09/26/2017 810162030490 London Symphony BD-25 2017 Flicker Alley, in partnership with Disobedient Films, proudly present London Symphony, a brand new silent film a city symphony which offers a poetic journey through the city of London. It is an artistic snapshot of the city as it stands today, and a celebration of its culture and diversity. The film is divided into four parts, corresponding to the four movements of a musical symphony. FIRST MOVEMENT: The first movement (morning) begins by looking at construction in the city, moving from the capitals oldest buildings to its newest. This contrast, between old and new, runs throughout the movement: old and new tube stations, old and new newspaper printing, old and new housing, etc. From there, the film moves on to explore London from above. The movement ends with a look at some of the capitals many monuments another reminder of the citys past. SECOND MOVEMENT: The second movement (morning-midday) travels through the citys quieter spaces, from its green parks to its agricultural fairs and markets. It then explores the vast array of food on offer in the city, celebrating this diversity while not shying away from the inequalities. THIRD MOVEMENT: The third movement (afternoon) explores the way people use the city, from the huge number of co-existing religions, to the way other people worship money and work, to shopping, to culture, museums and education. FOURTH MOVEMENT: The fourth movement (afternoon-evening) takes a trip along the Thames from East to West, exploring each of the bridges found along the way, before looking at the city in the rain. Finally, the film concludes with a look at evening events, and the city at night. Directed and edited by Alex Barrett, and featuring a soaring score by James McWilliam, London Symphony is a contemporary city symphony, a genre of creative non-fiction that flourished in the 1920s and consisted of works that attempted to build poetic portraits of urban life. The release of this Blu-ray coincides with the 90th anniversary of Walter Ruttmann's Berlin, Symphony of a Great City (1927), one of the most important examples of the original city symphonies. Ruttmann was one of the great pioneers of experimental film, and Barrett and McWilliam have worked hard to bring a similar sense of poetic playfulness to London Symphony, while also updating the form for the 21st Century.

10/24/2017 888574550066 Glenda Farrell Triple Feature 1936-1937 Perhaps best known for her portrayal of intrepid reporter Torchy Blane in a series of films, the great Glenda Farrell was an indispensable member of the Warner Bros. stock company of players. More "the girl from down the block" than "the girl next door," Glenda invested her characters with grit and vinegar - wise to the wise guys but still a sweet and solid citizen - and graced any scene she was in with extra zest. In The Law in Her Hands, Glenda plays second chair to Margaret Lindsay when the two portray a pair of recent law grads who end up as mouthpieces for a mobster (Lyle Talbot). Here Comes Carter finds Glenda playing secretary to Ross Alexander's on-the-air Hollywood whistle-blower who's being targeted by the mob. Finally, Glenda plays a key member of an ensemble that includes Allen Jenkins, Jean Muir and Stuart Erwin in the backstage satire Dance Charlie Dance. Glenda Farrell

10/24/2017 888574550073 Guy Kibbee Triple Feature 1935-1937 Goofball. Dear Old Pa. Sugar Daddy with a Heart of Gold. These were the stock-in-trade characters of beloved Warner Bros.' stock company member Guy Kibbee. Beginning his career entertaining on a Mississippi riverboat, Kibbee brought a larger-than-life energy to his characters, even when they were firmly on the sunset side of life. Mary Jane's Pa sees Kibbee playing a returning runaway dad opposite the formidable Aline MacMahon (and introducing the "Guy Kibbee Egg" to the world). Kibbee is paired with zany Zasu Pitts as a couple of newly rich yokels reaching above their class in Going Highbrow. Rounding things out, The Big Noise has Kibbee kicking up a racket as a businessman taking on the mob. Guy Kibbee

California...? Rachel Bloom; Vincent Rodriguez III; Santino Fontana; Donna Lynne Champlin

10/17/2017 888574541972 Washington Masquerade 1932 Firebrand defense attorney Jeff Keane (Lionel Barrymore) runs for Senate - and wins - after being chastised by his sitting senator for challenging "the old order." Unfortunately, it's a triumph that leads to Keane's defeat and ruin in this timeless piece of pre-Code cynical cinema. Persuaded to run by his fellows in the Bar Association, Jeff proves a formidable foe of the corrupt forces of big business and crony politics, earning him the nickname of "the new Lincoln." But this new Lincoln is an old widower, and sinister forces set the most dangerous woman in Washington, Consuela Fairbanks (Karen Morley), in Jeff's path. Jeff quickly marries Consuela, who wastes no time in leading Jeff into political corruption, much to the dismay of Jeff's daughter, Ruth (Diane Sinclair), and Jeff's own conscience. Nils Asther; Lionel Barrymore; Karen Morley; Diane Sinclair; Reginald Barlow; William Collier, Sr.; William Morris; Rafaela Ottiano; C. Henry Gordon

10/17/2017 888574541989 She Had to Say Yes 1933 "Could a good girl stay good when she had to say 'yes'?" is the question put to Loretta Young as a steno girl plucked from the secretarial pool for the dating pool in this pre-Code corker that still astonishes decades after its debut. Sales are down at Sol Glass' (Ferdinand Gottschalk) clothing company when whiz-kid salesman Tommy Nelson (Regis Toomey) makes an immodest proposal - why not send the young and innocent company girls - more used to dictation than gold-digging like their sales models - to entertain important out-of-town buyers. The one caveat being that the girls have to be willing, of course. But Tommy's own lady gets caught up in the scheme, and Flo Denny (Loretta Young) finds herself in a compromising situation with slick tycoon Danny Drew (Lyle Talbot). Surrounded by the hypocrisy of men, Florence's flirtation with seduction may prove to be her undoing. Busby Berkeley makes his behind-the-camera debut, co-directing with George Amy. Regis Toomey; Lyle Talbot; Loretta Young; Winnie Lightner; Hugh Herbert; Ferdinand Gottschalk; Helen Ware; Harold Waldridge

10/17/2017 888574542009 Stage Mother 1933 One-of-a-kind stage, silent and sound star Alice Brady delivers a remarkable performance alongside costar Maureen O'Sullivan in this pre-Code melodrama about a mother's twisted love, based on a book by backstage tell-all master Bradford Ropes of 42nd Street fame. Vaudeville star Kitty Lorraine (Brady) is forced to give up her infant daughter to her in-laws after her husband's death. Years later, when she has outgrown the boards, she sends for her innocent daughter, Shirley (O'Sullivan), and grooms her, Pygmalion-style, to be the stage sensation Kitty never was. But as Shirley matures, she enters into a romance with painter Warren Foster (Franchot Tone), a romance that Kitty twists into something sordid as she extracts a payout from Warren's wealthy parents...beginning a pattern for both mother and daughter. Alice Brady; Maureen O'Sullivan; Franchot Tone; Phillips Holmes; Ted Healy; Russell Hardie; C. Henry Gordon; Alan Edwards; Ben Alexander

10/17/2017 888574548414 Wide Open 1930 This pre-Code caper put comic-relief titan Edward Everett Horton in a most unusual position - romantic leading man! Thankfully, for Horton's sake and ours, the filmmaker's wisely chose to fill the role of his leading lady with the amazing Louise Fazenda, who even gets the chance to sing the blues! Timid, fluttery, cat-loving confirmed bachelor Simon Haldane (Horton) is used to having his excellent ideas ignored by his abusive boss Trundle (E. J. Ratcliffe) while being pursued against his will by coworker Agatha (Fazenda), but one dark and stormy night turns his life upside down. While Simon is confronted by Agatha's matrimony-demanding mother (Vera Lewis), a young lass takes shelter in his apartment, unbeknownst to him. And she happens to be undressed...Louise Beavers adds some sanity as Simon's maid, Easter. Edward Everett Horton; Patsy Ruth Miller; Louise Fazenda; T. Roy Barnes; Edna Murphy; E.J. Ratcliffe; Vera Lewis

10/17/2017 888574551384 Gold Diggers of 1933 1933 "A Broadway producer has the talent, the tunes, the theater and everything else he needs to put on a show - except the dough. Not to worry, say Ginger Rogers and the other leggy chorines decked out in giant coins. Everyone will soon be singing "We're in the Money." Warren William; Joan Blondell; Aline MacMahon; Ruby Keeler; Dick Powell; Guy Kibbee; Ned Sparks; Ginger Rogers; Billy Barty

10/10/2017 888574422226 The Sea Wolf 1941 "Jack London's novel The Sea Wolf had it all: action, mystery and widespread popularity. But Jack Warner, claiming the title was too similar to the studio's The Sea Hawk, wanted to give the 1941 film version something else: a new name. Producer Henry Blanke resisted, saying it would be "a detriment to the box office...(like changing) Gone With the Wind to Molly From the South." As film fans know, Molly stayed in the South and the haunting nautical adventure took a big bite out of the box office, becoming one of the top moneymakers of 1940-41. Edward G. Robinson; Alexander Knox; Ida Lupino; John Garfield; Gene Lockhart; Barry Fitzgerald

10/10/2017 888574524081 Dink the Little Dinosaur: The Complete Series 1989-1991 Meet Dink: a happy-go-lucky little kid...who just happens to be a dinosaur! Dink, an Apatosaurus, explores the land around his home of Green Meadow alongside his youthful saurian soul mates - Amber, a big-sister-type Corythosaurus; Scat, a Compsognathus with poor impulse control; Shyler, a timid Edaphosaurus; and Flapper, a braggart Pteranodon - while getting grouchy guidance from Crusty, an elderly Turtle. With boundless energy, endless self-confidence and a nose for fun, Dink joins his dino-buddies for outrageous adventures on his primitive playground. But danger abounds, along with wonder, as Green Meadow borders Hunter's Valley, the domain of carnivorous dinosaurs, ruled by the savage Tyrannor, a T. rex who would like nothing more than to turn Dink and his pals into a little snack! So, come on! Jump back to the Jurassic with Dink!

10/10/2017 888574524111 The Leftovers: The Complete Third Season 2017 In an instant, 140 million people vanished from the face of the earth. The cause of that incredible event remains unknown, and there is no indication that those who are gone will ever be seen or heard from again. THE LEFTOVERS follows the lives that were forever changed by the event that shook the world on October 14. In the third season, the Garvey and Murphy families come together as they desperately grasp for a system of belief to better explain what defies explanation. The world is crackling with the energy of something big about to happen, a corresponding bookend to the Sudden Departure that sent them all spinning years earlier, bringing their journey Down Under. 10/10/2017 888574541996 The Green Slime [Blu-ray] 1968 After a perilous mission to a huge asteroid, a crew returns to its space station, unaware that a bit of ooze from the asteroid clings to a crewman's uniform. The green goop grows - into murderous, tentacled monsters. And as station members fight to live, gunk from the monsters' wounds turns into more monsters! That's the story. Now enjoy as our heroes fight to preserve Earth and, unintentionally, our own senses of humor with a movie that Kevin Thomas of the Los Angeles Times called "one of the funniest made-in-Japan sci-fi monster movies ever." Kinji Fukasaku, whose later work was championed by Quentin Tarantino, directs. The world would be a far more bleak and joyless place without marvels like The Green Slime. Robert Horton; Richard Jaeckel; Luciana Paluzzi; Ted Gunther; Bud Widom; Robert Dunham; David Yorston

10/10/2017 888574564674 Act of Violence/Mystery Street 1949 Ex-World War II pilot Frank Enley (Van Heflin) is a respected contractor and family man. Then his troubled, gimp-legged bombardier (Robert Ryan) shows up with a gun and a score to settle. Perhaps neither man is what he seems to be as director Fred Zinnemann (The Day of the Jackal) guides a searing Act of Violence, "the first postwar noir to take a challenging look at the ethics of men in combat" (Eddie Muller, Dark City: The Lost World of Film Noir). Murder lives on Mystery Street. John Sturges (The Great Escape) directs a revealing-for-the-era procedural about a Boston cop (Ricardo Montalban) solving a whodunit with the help of a Harvard forensic expert (Bruce Bennett). Welcome to CSI Noir.

10/10/2017 888574564735 Crime Wave/Decoy 1946 A hard-boiled cop...a double-dealing dame: two cold-blooded classics! Sterling Hayden wears a badge and a scowl in Crime Wave. He's sure parolee Gene Nelson won't go straight. Will events prove him right? Andre de Toth directs and Charles Bronson (as Charles Buchinsky) joins the cast of this stylish hunt for a cop killer on L.A.'s mean streets. Decoy is another crisp thwack to the jaw, a showcase of how film noir can do so much with so little. Tragically short-lived Jean Gillie stars as one of noir's toughest cookies, a drop-dead beauty who chemically revives her sweetheart-in-crime after he gets the gas chamber. She's after money, not love: He knows where the loot is stashed. Now that's romance that will melt a noir fan's heart.

10/10/2017 888574564766 Illegal/The Big Steal 1949 When his career as a D.A. unexpectedly collapses, tenacious Victor Scott turns to defending criminal lowlifes. Scruples? "None whatever," Scott says. Edward G. Robinson plays Scott in Illegal, director Lewis Allen's (The Uninvited) snap-crackle-pow remake of The Mouthpiece. Film buffs' moments include Jayne Mansfield's scenes and real-life art expert Robinson's comments on a crime lord's collection of paintings. Out of the Past's Robert Mitchum and Jane Greer reteam in The Big Steal, speeding along Mexican roadways in pursuit of a grifter who has a suitcase that may be stuffed with cash. The road twists and so does this driven cat-and-mouse tale directed by Clint Eastwood's filmmaking mentor, Don Siegel.

10/10/2017 888574564919 Where Danger Lives/Tension 1950 Woozy Robert Mitchum - smitten with desire for deceitful Faith Domergue and walloped in the head with a fireplace poker by her hubby (Claude Rains) - journeys Where Danger Lives when the would-be lovebirds go on the lam. Ahead is Mexico, miles back is the husband's corpse. But the final destination for the illicit pair could be a dead end in this dark diamond directed by John Farrow (The Big Clock). Noir favorite Audrey Totter (The Set-

Up) two-times her devoted milquetoast spouse (Richard Basehart), and the Tension mounts as he plots revenge, then sees his plan take an unexpected turn. Cyd Charisse, Barry Sullivan and William Conrad costar in a bitter tale of the postwar American dream frayed into nightmare.

10/3/2017 888574571528 Superman The Movie: Extended Cut & Special Edition 2-Film Collection [Blu-ray] 1978-2000 Decades before blockbuster Extended Cuts were common, Superman proved a true "Man of Tomorrow." The Sailing Channel Brings New Adventures

While it may be some time before your next sailing adventure, our friends at The Sailing Channel have sent us additional catalog releases to share with you and your customers. They are good to cast off today, good selling and sailing.

09/12/17 818522018409 Beyond The West Horizon 1963 In the late 1950's, very few "middle class" sailors had taken small sailing craft on long voyages. British Sailors, Eric & Susan Hiscock became pioneers in making long trans-oceanic passages in a small sailboat to what was then quite remote destinations. Their circumnavigation paved the way for future generations of cruising sailors who would follow in their wake, making blue water passage-making the more common experience it has become today. The Hiscocks shared their sailing adventures in several books and made this 16mm color documentary about their second circumnavigation aboard their 30 foot sloop, Wanderer III. The couple departed from Yarmouth Isle of Wight on the 19th of July 1959 and returned on August 8th, 1962.

09/12/17 689076256599 Cast Off for Catalina 2005 This is the indispensable Video Cruising & Visitor Guide to Catalina Island for boaters (and landlubbers too!) A must-see before you sail and when visiting. It includes everything you need to know about cruising to tranquil Catalina island, just 20 miles from busy Los Angeles across the Santa Barbara Channel. The video covers mooring technique, anchoring, and a complete circumnavigation of the island describing the most popular harbors and anchorages. During the video, you'll visit Avalon Harbor, the Isthmus, Cherry and Fourth of July Coves, Howland's Landing, Emerald Bay, Catalina Harbor, Little Harbor, and many others. The video also takes you onshore to visit the quaint town of Avalon, the isthmus outpost of Two Harbors, and the picturesque interior where buffalo roam--decendants of a herd imported for a 1930's Western Movie.

09/12/17 718122051816 Cast Off for Mexico 2007 The indispensable Video Guide for boaters entering and exiting Mexican waters. This video is a must-see before you sail and while you're there.
