learns to give instead of steal. A fear-fraught shut-in finds the courage to brave fate. A cold-blooded killer finds something worth dying for. An all-powerful prison warden discovers how small and weak he is. These four souls are condemned to be forever transformed within the crucible of Devil's Island. Michel (Ronald Colman), sent to Devil's Island for bank robbery, catches the attention of the warden (Dudley Digges) thanks to his Parisian sophistication. Eager for a houseboy appropriate to his status, the warden gives Michel the assignment. While Michel's bunkmate, the killer Jacques, gets hard labor, Michel seeks to serve his time softly as a servant. Thanks to the warden's wife (Ann Harding), Michel's labors soon prove as hard as Jacques. Ronald Colman's performance as Michel, along with his role in Bulldog Drummond the same year, solidly secured his transition from silent star to talkie A-lister. Ronald Colman; Ann Harding; Louis Wolheim; Dudley Digges

4/24/2018 888574662219 Devil to Pay, The DVD-5 1930 Lovable rogue Willie Hale (Ronald Colman) has frittered away another fortune in British East Africa, so he auctions off his belongings and returns to England. While Lord Leland (Frederick Kerr), Willie's father, fumes about Willie's latest failure, Willie buys a dog with his last pounds and rekindles a romance with saucy actress Mary Crayle (Myrna Loy). Finally returning to the home estate, Willie wins over his father yet again and makes the acquaintance of nouveau riche linoleum heiress Dorothy Hope (Loretta Young). Engaged to a Russian nobleman, Dorothy is besotted by Willie's freewheeling ways and soon gives up everything for a life of poverty with Willie. But there's one condition: Willie must never see Mary again. Much like its protagonist, played with customary wit and grace by Ronald Colman, this light and airy character romance has charms that are as winning now as when they were freshly minted. Ronald Colman; Loretta Young; Myrna Loy

4/24/2018 888574644093 Static Shock: The Complete Fourth Season DVD-5 2003 Static Shock's fourth and final season cements Static's arrival as an A-list super hero, thanks to a Bat-charged flash-forward that sees Static (voiced by Phil Lamarr) bounce from the present-era Bruce Wayne/Batman (voiced by Kevin Conroy) to Batman Beyond's Terry McGinnis (voiced by Will Friedle) and a glimpse at his own future self. After confronting the future's incarnation of Kobra (voiced by Lance Henriksen), Virgil returns to Dakota City in the present, where he and Gear (voiced by Jason Marsden) tackle faux Bang Baby wannabe hero She-Bang, assist African hero Anansi and try to take down Static's idol, Green Lantern (also voiced by Lamarr). It all comes to a head when a cure is discovered for the Bang Babies - a cure that threatens Gear's and Static's abilities as well! This collection also includes the Justice League Unlimited two-part episode Once and Future Thing, which follows up on elements from Static Shock's time-bending season opener.

4/24/2018 888574657581 Woman Chases Man DVD-5 1937 It's like father, unlike son in this screwball comedy reteaming Miriam Hopkins and Joel McCrea. Ex-millionaire B.J. Nolan (Charles Winninger) has frittered away his fortune on one mad scheme after another while his millionaire son, Kenneth (McCrea), is quite tight with his fortune.

less he's "tight" on alcohol; then he tries to buy everything in sight! Desperate to save his latest project - a low-income housing development - B.J. drafts lady architect Virginia Travis (Hopkins) to help him extract the funding he needs from his son. Kenneth has returned from Europe with a complication or two: a fiancée (Leona Maricle) and her "uncle" (Erik Rhodes), who are actually gold-digging grifters. While Virginia gets wise to what's up with Kenneth's fiancée, she realizes she has no choice but to "fight firewater with firewater." While Kenneth ping-pongs between pliable and intractable, Virginia realizes she has fallen for him. Miriam Hopkins; Joel McCrea; Charles Winninger; Erik Rhodes; Leona Maricle; Broderick Crawford

4/17/2018 888574623418 Les Girls [Blu-ray] BD-50 1957 ""BRAVO" say critics about an entertainer's tell-all memoir chronicling her days in the cabaret act Barry Nichols and Les Girls. "Libel!" cries another of Les Girls, setting in motion a talons- and fact-baring litigation that proves Les Girls will be girls and that Cole Porter movie musicals will always sparkle. Gene Kelly plays Nichols, and Mitzi Gaynor, Golden Globe® Best Actress winner Kay Kendall and Taina Elg are the femmes in this George Cukor-directed romp that won a Best Costume Design Oscar®* and another Golden Globe® for Best Comedy/Musical. Among the highlights: a ribald "Ladies in Waiting" and a hepcat parody of The Wild One called "Why Am I So Gone About That Gal?" You'll be so gone about Les Girls." Gene Kelly; Mitzi Gaynor; Kay Kendall; Taina Elg; Jacques Bergerac; Leslie Phillips; Henry Daniell; Patrick Macnee; Stephen Vercoe; Philip Tonge

4/17/2018 888574651688 Lights of New York DVD-5 1928 "It's Hear!" the ads wittily declared, announcing yet another first from Warner Bros. Following up on the feature-with-synchronized-music Don Juan and the part-talkie feature The Jazz Singer, Warner Bros. pushed its Vitaphone sound-on-disc process to the apex - an all-talkie feature. This brisk crime saga tells "a story that might have been torn out of last night's newspaper," an approach that would shortly become the studio's signature style. Small-town yokels Eddie (Cullen Landis) and Gene (Eugene Pallette) get suckered by a pair of bootleggers into buying a Manhattan barbershop that is really a speakeasy. While Eddie reconnects with his hometown honey-turned-chorus girl Kitty (Helene Costello), the boys get framed by a gangster who has the hots for Kitty. Despite its basic plot, this technological breakthrough went on to become a box-office smash, hastening the demise of silent cinema. Helene Costello; Cullen Landis; Mary Carr; Wheeler Oakman; Gladys Brockwell

4/17/2018 888574644062 Manhattan Parade DVD-5 1931 A theatrical costume company is center stage for this pre-Code look at the business of Broadway. Doris Roberts (Winnie Lightner) is the super-efficient operations manager of the Roberts Costume Company, a firm she cofounded with her husband, John (Walter Miller). Doris has all the plates properly spinning in the air, whether its juggling the fussiness of finicky costume designer Paisley (Bobby Watson), the eccentricities of head researcher Herbert T. Herbert (Charles Butterworth), or the demands of addled Broadway producers Lou and Jake Delman (vaudeville comedy duo Smith & Dale). When John preys on Doris' maternal guilt, however, she steps down from the job to be a full-time mother to their son, Junior (Dickie Moore). While Doris plays stay-at-home mom, John skips town for the continent with Doris' former secretary, Charlotte (Greta Granstedt). Can Doris save the company before creditors close its doors? Winnie Lightner; Charles Butterworth; Joe Smith; Charles Dale; Dickie Moore

4/17/2018 888574623449 Mighty Orbots: The Complete Series DVD-5 1984 ""Earth: the 23rd century. A time of robots and aliens. And of destruction and terror! Super robots forging together at Rob's command to form Mighty Orbots, champion of the universe!"

This Japanese-American coproduction may have lasted only one season, but thanks to its veteran director, Osamu Dezaki (Astro Boy), and character designs from Akio Sugino (Kimba the White Lion), it's one of the sleekest and most striking action cartoons to be broadcast in a decade brimming with them. So get ready to cheer for six special robots as they defend the agents of the Galactic Patrol from the menace of the criminal organization SHADOW."

4/17/2018 888574644079 Notorious Affair, A DVD-5 1930 Billie Dove stars as British heiress Lady Patricia Hanley, who ditches high society for love when she marries penniless musician Paul Gherardi (Basil Rathbone). Exiled from both country home and family coffers, Patricia keeps her man hale and hearty while his considerable talent propels him to the top. Paul's ascent is not based solely on artistic merit, however, but on the patronage of the Countess Olga Balakireff (Kay Francis). The Countess expects a most singular payment for her services, and the sensitive and selfish Paul is left as shattered as his marriage when she is done extracting it. With no one to turn to and nowhere to go, Paul must rely on Patricia's tender mercies for his physical and emotional recovery. Fully coming into her own as a film star with her riveting performance as the Countess, Kay Francis captures the screen as the voracious man-eater who dispenses with her conquests as casually as she seduces them. Billie Dove; Basil Rathbone; Kay Francis; Kenneth Thomson; Montagu Love; Philip Strange; Malcolm Waite

4/17/2018 888574524142 Perfect Strangers: The Complete Third Season DVD-9 1987-88 Season three of this sitcom classic brings some changes and some new faces. Larry (Mark Linn-Baker) escapes the discount store and lands a new job as an assistant at the Chicago Chronicle newspaper. Cousin Balki (Bronson Pinchot) comes to visit Larry at work and, in a "redikolus" twist of fate, lands a job in the Chronicle's mail room! While Balki's supervisor, Sam Gorpley (Sam Anderson) connives to get Balki fired, the cousins befriend strong-willed working woman Harriette Winslow (Jo Marie Payton), who suffers no fools from the confines of the elevator she operates. Thankfully, the bighearted Harriette thinks of Larry and Balki as family, and family matters to her. Larry and Balki's friends from upstairs, Jennifer (Melanie Wilson) and Mary Anne (Rebeca Arthur), continue to help out in matters of life and love as the boys continue to chase their dreams, one of which culminates in Balki's graduation from night school! Bronson Pinchot; Mark Linn-Baker; Rebeca Arthur; Melanie Wilson

4/17/2018 888574644086 Ship From Shanghai, The DVD-5 1930 It all starts light enough: A band plays "Singin' in the Rain" in Chinese in a Shanghai nightclub while a supercilious playboy (Conrad Nagel) pursues a beautiful, if overly serious, member of the English aristocracy (Kay Johnson). A married couple (Holmes Herbert and Carmel Myers), fellow members of the smart set, proposes the lark of a lifetime: a leisurely three-month voyage to the States aboard a borrowed sailing yacht. The American playboy, English girl and her dowager aunt (Zeffie Tilbury) all enthusiastically agree, and a crew is hastily assembled. It's a haste the upper-class party will soon regret, as the ship's steward (Louis Wolheim) is secretly simmering with a psychotic hatred for the super rich. After a typhoon cripples the ship and sends them adrift, class warfare erupts into murderous mutiny, and the English girl may be all that stands between the sailing party and the sharks. Kay Johnson; Louis Wolheim; Holmes Herbert; Carmel Myers; Conrad Nagel; Zeffie Tilbury; Ivan Linow; Jack McDonald

4/10/2018 888574623340 Alexander Hamilton DVD-9 1931 More than a decade after wowing audiences on the Great White Way with his portrayal of the nation's original Treasury secretary in the eponymous play he coauthored with Mary Hamlin, Mr. George Arliss reprised the role for his home studio, Warner Bros. Much like its much-lauded latter-day stage sensation, Hamlin and Arliss' Hamilton does not skimp on sophistication. Adding spark and spice to the proceedings is a generous dollop of seduction and scandal as Hamilton's fierce desire to place the nation on sound financial footing lands him in the crosshairs of a conspiracy that threatens his marriage and his honor. Arliss artfully keeps heart and soul at the center despite his added years, while Doris Kenyon and June Collyer complete the triangle as Hamilton's beloved Betsy and the tempting Mrs. Reynolds. George Arliss; Doris Kenyon; June Collyer; Ralf Harolde; Montagu Love; Lionel Belmore; Alan Mowbray; John T. Murray; Morgan Wallace; John Larkin

4/10/2018 888574655808 Jezebel DVD-9 1938 "While movie fans were abuzz over who might play Scarlett O'Hara in the upcoming Gone with the Wind, Bette Davis got another Southern-belle role - and gave a fiery performance that won the 1938 Best Actress Academy Award®. Davis plays Julie, a New Orleans beauty whose constant attempts to goad fiancé Pres Dillard (Henry Fonda) to jealousy backfire. Angry and disgraced, Pres breaks their engagement and leaves town. Julie endures a year of remorse until Pres comes home - married. Then her vengeance explodes. Jezebel is also noted for its sumptuous sets and costumes, Fay Bainter's Oscar®-winning* performance and William Wyler's vivid direction, highlighted by a horrifying re-creation of a yellow fever epidemic. But the film's greatest strength is Davis, whose titanic talent has never been better displayed than in Jezebel." Bette Davis; Henry Fonda; George Brent; Margaret Lindsay; Donald Crisp; Fay Bainter; Richard Cromwell; Henry O'Neill; Spring Byington; John Litel

4/10/2018 888574623425 Lost Lady, A DVD-5 1934 When tragedy shockingly strikes on the eve of her wedding, socialite Marian Ormsby (Barbara Stanwyck) falls deep into despair and bitterness. Sent north by her family in an attempt to free her from her malevolent malaise, Marian suffers a bad fall on the slopes of the Canadian Rockies. Rescued by successful lawyer Dan Forrester (Frank Morgan), Marian is gently coaxed out of her shell by the smitten Dan, many years her senior. Dan eventually surprises her with a unique proposal - a marriage without love! The pair become the toast of the town and Dan builds Marian her dream mansion, while she gently dissuades Dan's law partner Neil (Lyle Talbot) of his amorous hopes. Marian's peaceful idyll without love comes crashing down when dashing transport magnate Frank Ellinger (Ricardo Cortez) makes an emergency landing on her estate. Rebuffing his liberties, Marian discovers her desire has merely been dormant, not dead. But what about Dan? Frank Morgan; Ricardo Cortez; Lyle Talbot; Phillip Reed; Hobart Cavanaugh

4/10/2018 888574623470 Shining Victory DVD-5 1941 Dr. Paul Venner (James Stephenson) has dedicated his life to one radical notion - that certain forms of dementia praecox may be treated biochemically. While Venner is employed at Professor Hermann von Reiter's prestigious institute in Budapest, his work is stolen by von Reiter, and he is banished from the country. Embittered, he accepts a position at a private sanitarium in Scotland, thanks to Dr. Drewett (Donald Crisp), where he promptly alienates everyone in his single-minded, almost ruthless pursuit of science. When young Dr. Mary Murray (Geraldine Fitzgerald), a medical missionary in training, is appointed his research assistant, Venner vehemently objects. Mary is given a month to prove her worth, but in the end she proves his salvation, through shocking tragedy. Irving Rapper's directorial debut is sharply crafted and lifted by superb performances from its talented cast, a film that transcends both cinematically and spiritually. James Stephenson; Geraldine Fitzgerald; Donald Crisp; Barbara O'Neil; Montagu Love; Sig Ruman; G.P. Huntley; Richard Ainley; Bruce Lester; Leonard Mudie; Doris Lloyd

4/10/2018 888574644109 Tex Avery's Droopy: The Complete Theatrical Collection DVD-5 1954 A dog may be man's best friend, but a cartoon fan's best friend is Droopy, the diminutive basset hound created by animation legend Tex Avery. No matter the challenge, deadpan Droopy remains unflappable. Yes, there are jowly folds, but no flaps. Not ever. Droopy speaks slowly but thinks fast. He moves slowly but pops up quicker than a dog can lick a dinner dish, anywhere he needs to be. He's the ideal counterpoint to Avery's trendsetting sight gags, extended reactions and hilarious unpredictability. All 24 of the theatrical Droopy cartoons - with The Wolf and bulldog Spike joining the fun - are showcased in this one-of-a-kind 2-disc Collector's Set. You'll be happier than a flea in a doghouse.

4/10/2018 888574661434 The Bride Came C.O.D. DVD-9 1941 "Ten dollars a pound is the going rate for freight, so charter pilot Steve Collins figures he's owed $1,150, cash on delivery. His cargo is Joan Winfield, an heiress whose elopement with a musician is kiboshed when Steve kidnaps her so he can fly her to her irate papa. But then Joan finds a parachute. Comedy comes from a mother lode of sources in this screwball farce headlined by the ebullient pairing of James Cagney and Bette Davis, scripted by Julius J. and Philip G. Epstein (Casablanca, Arsenic and Old Lace), and full of favorite supporting talents. The stars (in their second and final film together) spar with harebrained zest, the story scoots along like butter in a hot pan, and the happy result from start to end is C.O.D. - Comedy on Demand." James Cagney; Bette Davis; Stuart Erwin; Eugene Pallette; Jack Carson; George Tobias; Harry Davenport; William Frawley; Edward Brophy; Harry Holman

4/10/2018 888574644000 The Damned Don't Cry DVD-9 1950 "It's a man's world. And Ethel Whitehead learns there's only one way for a woman to survive in it: Be as tempting as a cupcake and as tough as a 75-cent steak. In the first of three collaborations with director Vincent Sherman, Joan Crawford brings hard-boiled glamour and simmering passion to the role of Ethel, who moves from the wrong side of the tracks to a mobster's mansion to high society, one man at a time. Some of those men love her. Some use her. And one - a high-rolling racketeer - abuses her. When the racketeer murders his rival in Ethel's swanky living room, she flees a sure murder rap...right back to the poverty she thought she had escaped. And this time there may not be a man to pick up the pieces of her shattered life." Joan Crawford; David Brian; Steve Cochran; Kent Smith; Hugh Sanders; Selena Royle; Jacqueline deWit; Morris Ankrum; Edith Evanson; Richard Egan; Sara Perry; Jimmy Moss; Eddie Marr

4/10/2018 888574637071 The Mask: The Complete First Season DVD-9 1995 When he dons an ancient Nordic mask, Stanley Ipkiss moves at warp speed, knows your every desire, satisfies your every whim and dances like a dapper demon. Based on the film The Mask, this animated series tells the story of sweet, socially inept bank teller Stanley Ipkiss, who discovers the magical mask of Loki, which transforms him into a super hero...but one whom you may not want to call for help. This intriguing mix of edgy super satire and Tex Avery-style reality-smashing slapstick boldly goes further than the film and finds Stanley - and The Mask - falling into ever-more-improbable perils. Watch how he faces madcap menaces like Baby Mask; the man-hungry Lady Mask; Pretorius' Sister Mask, which exists to turn The Mask into a living puppet; the youth-stealing Skillit; and the most terrifying one of all - Stanley's dog, Milo (as a Canine Mask!). Rob Paulsen and Tim Curry lend their voices to the antics.

4/10/2018 888574623463 The Prime Minister DVD-5 1941 Bitterly opposed by the other side of the aisle, the British Prime Minister finds scant support even from his own party as he strives to protect his nation from dark forces growing in Europe. The parallels between Benjamin Disraeli and Winston Churchill were not lost on the creative executives at Warner Bros.' Teddington Studios in England, and The Prime Minister joined a long line of Warner films that served double duty as both fine entertainment and war effort. Legendary thespian John Gielgud plays the equally legendary Disraeli in this sweeping life drama that follows the politician's life from foppish novelist to revered statesman. And it all starts with a "meet cute," as the overly outfitted Disraeli crashes his bicycle contraption into the coach of the widowed Lady Mary Anne Wyndham Lewis (Diana Wynyard). Lady Mary Anne soon captures Dizzy's mind and heart, steering him from satire to service to savior of his nation. John Gielgud; Diana Wynyard

4/10/2018 888574661441 Torrid Zone DVD-9 1940 "Get Nick! Big shot Steve Case knows only one man can shape up his troubled banana-republic plantation - fireball foreman Nick Butler. But Nick may be a little distracted. He's just met stranded American Lee Donley, a chanteuse who can hold her own at a card table. Especially if she's dealing. Offscreen pals James Cagney and Pat O'Brien team for the eighth time in this snappy action comedy. In a role widely cited as putting her on the movie fan's map, Hollywood's "Oomph Girl" Ann Sheridan portrays wisecracking Lee. Now add superb support and zippy repartee, plus 950 banana trees planted over five backlot acres, and the heat is on. "You and your 14-carat oomph," Cagney says, in the film's final clinch." James Cagney; Ann Sheridan; Pat O'Brien; Andy Devine; Helen Vinson; Jerome Cowan; George Tobias; George Reeves; Victor Kilian; Frank Puglia; John Ridgely; Grady Sutton; Paul Porcasi; Frank Yaconelli

4/3/2018 888574643997 Comet Over Broadway DVD-5 1938 Working mom Eve Appleton (Kay Francis) runs a newsstand, raises her daughter, tends to her husband (John Litel), gets chastised by her mother-in-law (Vera Lewis) and dreams of the stage. A short scuffle results in the death of the actor, and Bill is quickly railroaded to the big house. Vowing to see her husband freed, Eve begins her ascent from small-town stage to showgirl to burlesque to vaudeville and then to Broadway. Along the way, she gives up custody of her daughter to a showgal pal, Tim (Minna Gombel), and falls for theater impresario Bert Ballin (Ian Hunter). Eve flees to London to escape her heart. 4/3/2018 888574644017 Fireman, Save My Child DVD-5 1932 The grand mouth of mirth himself, Joe E. Brown, gets to show off his astounding athleticism as well as his vaudevillian chops in this sports comedy about a pitcher who brings the heat while looking to douse the fire. Smokey Joe Grant (Brown), contented resident of rural Roseland, Kansas, is a full-time firefighter and a part-time pitcher for the local ball club. Although his skills on the mound are extraordinary, baseball is a take-it-or-leave-it proposition for Joe, and it's fighting fires that captures his concerns. Fires and his small-town sweetheart, Sally (Evalyn Knapp), that is. But when the big league comes calling in the form of the St. Louis Cardinals, Sally convinces Smokey Joe to sign so he can better sell his invention, a pitchable extinguisher ball, and save enough scratch for them to get hitched. Brown; Evalyn Knapp; Lillian Bond; Guy Kibbee; Richard Carle; George MacFarlane; Frank Shallenbach; Virginia Sale; Curtis Benton; George Meeker

4/3/2018 888574642341 M-G-M's The Big Parade of Comedy DVD-5 1963 Produced, directed and written by Robert Youngson, most famous for reacquainting the moviegoing public with the titans of the silent era in The Golden Age of Comedy (1957) and When Comedy Was King (1960), this compilation documentary begins, appropriately enough, in the 1920s and spotlights Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's sillier side up to 1948. The film's all-star assembly of scenes includes performances from across the firmament of Hollywood, from legendary comedy teams like Laurel and Hardy, Abbott and Costello, and The Marx Brothers to screen icons like Joan Crawford, Clark Gable, Cary Grant and Katharine Hepburn to beloved screen comedians like W.C. Fields, Red Skelton and Lucille Ball. So grab your popcorn, get ready to watch this parade - and listen for Garbo's laugh! Legendary broadcaster Les Tremayne narrates.

Showgirl Mary has her sights set on big-lug mob boss "Shoots" Magiz (Nat Pendleton) and prods him into popping the question. With best gal pal Mirabelle in tow, Mary sets out for a picture-book country wedding to Shoots, joined by his minions Dingle (Sam Hardy) and Mickey the Greek (Leo Carrillo). A wedding-day massacre courtesy of rival racketeers is avoided, thanks to the quick work of Shoot's bodyguard, "Office Boy" (Chester Morris). Back in the big city, Mary secures both prenup and nuptials from Shoots, and sets out on a high-flying honeymoon, her financial future seemingly secure. Mary's "for better" soon turns to "for worse," and she finds herself on the hook for Shoots' debts. Good thing there are more mobsters to marry...even if "Office Boy" doesn't approve. Carole Lombard; Chester Morris; ZaSu Pitts; Leo Carrillo; Nat Pendleton; Sam Hardy; Walter Walker; Eddie "Rochester" Anderson

High atop a skeletal skyscraper under construction, riveters Bill Dugan (Tom Dugan) and Hap Harrigan (Ben Lyon) cry "Got ya!" while catching red-hot rivets and singing "Nobody Loves a Riveter (But His Mother)" when a sleeping beauty in a neighboring penthouse catches Hap's eye. Enraptured, Hap misses his "Got ya!" and a rivet crashes through the boudoir window, causing a fire. Racing to the rescue, Hap douses the flames while setting the heiress, Juliette Hunter (Ona Munson), aflame with desire. The practical-minded Hap sees no future in their cross-class romance, but Juliette is determined to land Hap as her man. First, however, she needs to break things off with her high-society fiancé, Clay (Walter Pidgeon). And Clay is determined to prove Hap an upstart lout... Ben Lyon; Ona Munson; Walter Pidgeon; Tom Dugan; Holmes Herbert; Inez Courtney; Thelma Todd; Nella Walker

Turner Classic Movies New DVD Releases

In anticipation of their annual TCM Film Festival coming this April, there's great news for classic collectors as TCM rolls out three new DVDs with the TCM legendary quality and attention to detail.

04/10/18 251920524774 Douglas Sirk: Filmmaker Collection DVD-9 1951, 1954, 1955, 1958 Recognized today as one of the most distinctive and influential directors of the 1950's, Douglas Sirk was rarely praised and often overlooked by critics during his years in Hollywood. His penchant for melodramatic storylines were accented by a baroquevisual style, emotional intensity and lush production values. With a chameleon-like ability to adapt to any genre, Sirk's versatility is represented in this unique collection by a melodrama, a western, a mystery thriller, and a costume adventure. Featuring stars such as Rock Hudson, Claudette Colbert, Robert Stack, Dorothy Malone, Barbara Rush and Ann Blyth, Douglas Sirk: Filmmaker Collection showcases the style and scope one of Hollywood's most acclaimed directors. THUNDER ON THE HILL (1951) A nun (Claudette Colbert) races against time to prove the innocence of a convicted murderess (Ann Blyth) who is being escorted to prison for a date with the gallows in Thunder on the Hill. Based on the popular British play Bonaventure, this moodymystery serves up many twists and is distinguished by one of Claudette Colbert's most intriguing and least-known performances. In addition to Douglas Sirk's fast-paced direction, the film is enriched by Hans J. Salter's stirring dramatic score, a first rate supporting cast and the luminous black and white cinematography of William H. Daniels, who helped immortalize the screen personas of Greta Garbo and Norma Shearer during his MGM period. TAZA, SON OF COCHISE (1954) The two sons of Apache leader Cochise (Jeff Chandler) have conflicting views of the white men who trespass on their land; Taza (Rock Hudson) argues for peaceful co-existence but his younger brother Naiche (Bart Roberts) joins Geronimo on the warpath. One of the few Westerns made in the 1950s that attempted to present a positive view of Native Americans, Taza, Son of Cochise was the second of eight movies that Rock Hudson made with director Douglas Sirk. Filmed on location in Utah, the natural setting of the desert is one of the movie's many assets which is vividly captured by the glorious Technicolor cinematography. CAPTAIN LIGHTFOOT (1955) Michael Martin (Rock Hudson) is a headstrong young patriot who has turned to highway robbery to support his country's cause against England during the Irish revolution. When he is taken under the wing of the famous rebel leader Captain Thunderbolt (Jeff Morrow), he soon finds himself second-in-command with a bounty on his head. Filmed on location in Ireland, Captain Lightfoot stars Rock Hudson in a dynamic role that allows him to portray an action hero with a comedic sensibility as well as a charming ladies man. THE TARNISHED ANGELS (1957) The Tarnished Angels covers three days in the lives of a trio of flying-circus performers, headlined by former WWI fighter-pilot hero Roger Shumann (Robert Stack) and his beautiful blonde wife, Laverne (Dorothy Malone). Romantic complications arise when newspaper reporter Burke Devlin (Rock Hudson) falls in love with Laverne while covering their daredevil aerial show. Claudette Colbert, Rock Hudson, Ann Blyth, Robert Stack, Dorothy Malone, Barbara Rush DISHONORED (1931) Inspired by the exploits of the famous World War I spy Mata Hari, DISHONORED is a striking espionage thriller about a widow (Marlene Dietrich) who is forced to turn to prostitution to support herself. Recruited by the Austrian Secret Service as a spy, she becomes an expert in ferreting out secrets from the enemy but meets her match in the form of a Russian agent named Kranau (Victor McLaglen). 03/20/18 844667006216 Singlehanded Docking and Sail Trim with Captain Jack Klang DVD-5 2007 Though simple classroom models and on the water examples, Capt. Jack Klang teaches you how to dock your sailboat and trim your cruising sails, singlehanded, with confidence. He also demonstrates how easy it is for a crew of two set, fly, and retrieve an Asymmetrical cruising spinnaker. Captain Jack Klang holds a 50-ton USCG Master license, power and sail. Sailing aboard his own vessel, "Hells Bells," a 1966 Sparkman & Stevens designed 30ft Chris Craft sloop, in Suttons Bay, MI., Capt. Jack has a way of showing how things work so anyone can understand. This is a must for those who want to learn singlehanded docking and sail trim.
