There is nothing that has been pondered more by mankind and nothing more divisive to the human race than the question...Is there a God? Did we come from the mind of a creator, or from absolutely nothing? Many have misunderstood or created concepts of what God actually means believing it to be the one defined by Christians, Jews or Muslims or other religious belief systems of the world. But in a world where miracles occur daily, the void between belief and reality is indicative of the troubled planet we live on and it has become apparent that the truth and understanding of our inner-selves is, in the end, our ultimate quest and perhaps it's a simple question of faith.

11/21/17 888608667739 The Music of Strangers: Yo-Yo Ma & the Silk Road Ensemble 2017 Over the past 16 years, an extraordinary group of musicians has come together to celebrate the universal power of music. Named for the ancient trade route linking Asia, Africa and Europe, The Silk Road Ensemble, an international collective created by legendary cellist Yo-Yo Ma, exemplifies music's ability to blur international boundaries, blend disparate cultures and inspire hope for artist and audience. The Sound of Silk, the latest film from the creators of the Oscar®-winning documentary 20 Feet from Stardom, and the critically-acclaimed Best of Enemies follows an ever-changing lineup of performers drawn from the ensemble's more than 50 instrumentalists, vocalists, composers, arrangers, visual artists and storytellers as they gather in locations across the world, exploring the ways art can both preserve traditions and shape cultural evolution. Blending performance footage, personal interviews and archival film, director Morgan Neville and producer Caitrin Rogers focus on the journeys of a small group of Silk Road Ensemble mainstays from across the globe to create an intensely personal chronicle of passion, talent and sacrifice. Through these moving individual stories, the filmmakers paint a vivid portrait of a bold musical experiment and a global search for the ties that bind. 2016 "CHICAGO: THE TERRY KATH EXPERIENCE is a documentary about a daughter discovering the legacy of her father: the late Terry Kath. Kath was one of the founding members of the band Chicago, whose powerful guitar playing and husky, melodic voice has been praised by such icons as Jimi Hendrix, Joe Walsh and Eric Clapton. Before discovering his full potential as a guitar icon, Kath's life ended tragically at age 32. Terry's daughter Michelle was just two years old when he passed, only knowing him through his music and stories from her mother. After discovering a box of memorabilia, Michelle sets out on a journey to get to know her father and to search for his iconic lost guitar. In this documentary, Michelle interviews her dad's family, bandmates and good friends, as well as prominent musicians, to piece together the life of Terry Kath, one of the great unsung rock legends of the 1970s.

CHICAGO: THE TERRY KATH EXPERIENCE was directed and produced by Michelle Kath Sinclair, and was produced by Jordan Levy and Tony Papa. This DVD features raw and uncut bonus material with behind-the-scenes moments on Michelle's journey as well as clips that did not make the final cut, including Michelle's backstage concert meet up with Chicago, a candid look at the interview with Michelle and her mother Camelia, an exclusive look at the Chicago members as they share stories about living with Terry Kath, bonus footage from Michelle and Camelia's visit to Caribou Ranch and a special compilation of Terry Kath's 8mm home footage with commentary. 11/28/17     191091506554 Mario Lanza: The Best of Everything 2017     "One of the most famous tenors the world has ever known. One of the greatest tenors of the modern era. Pavarotti, Carreras, Domingo and Bocelli - all of these iconic vocalists trace their inspiration back to one legendary talent: Mario Lanza. Lanza became the first true crossover artist when MGM made him a matinee idol during the 1950s with box office hits such as ""The Toast of New Orleans,"" ""The Great Caruso"" and ""The Student Prince." One gold disc followed another thanks to operatic arias and pop hits such as ""The Loveliest Night of the Year,"" ""Because You're Mine,"" ""Che Gelida Manina,"" ""Golden Days"" and his signature ballad ""Be My Love."" Lanza was idolized, but within ten years his star had burned itself out and he was dead at just thirty-eight years old. It was the first in a long list of tragic deaths of stars battling to live with fame and the darker side that comes with it. Lanza was a Hollywood film star, but the most dramatic role he ever played was that of Mario Lanza himself. It was a life overflowing with fame, passion, tantrums, success, vices, generosity and incomprehensible tragedies. And it was played to a soundtrack of one of the most beautiful singing voices ever heard. This is the Mario Lanza story. This DVD features Mario Lanza's full performance from the London Palladium in 1957, "Lanza Extravaganza Countdown" showing clips of film interviewees talking about their favorite Lanza recordings, a photo gallery of Mario Lanza's pictures, the official ""Mario Lanza: The Best of Everything"" trailer along with English subtitles for the deaf and hearing-impaired." 11/28/17     191091545676 Heartworn Highways 1976     "In 1976, producer Graham Leader and director James Szalapski documented the outlaw songwriter scene that extended from Austin to Nashville. On their travels, they met unknown musicians Steve Earle (ten years before he released his first album), Rodney Crowell and John Hiatt, plus their musical mentors Guy Clark and Townes Van Zandt. Born was HEARTWORN HIGHWAYS, which covers singer-songwriters whose songs diverge from the traditions of the previous generation, instead recalling early folk and country music. The documentary remained unreleased until 1981 and went on to become a cult classic to fans of the genre. The movie features the first-known recordings of Grammy Award® winners Steve Earle and Rodney Crowell. The film's viewer, like an unseen outsider dropped unobtrusively into the hospital's stream of activity, passes through hallways, enters rooms and listens in on conversations. At first, the surrounding people are strangers. But as the film continues, it's absorbingly intimate, rendering the women at the heart of the story increasingly familiar. Three women - Lea, Aira and Lerma - emerge to share their stories with other mothers, their families, doctors and social workers. While each of them faces daunting odds at home, their optimism, honesty and humor suggest a strength that they will certainly have to summon in the years ahead.
