5/21/2019 609408422195 Haight Ashbury: The Beat of Generation 2012 In a brief

four year span in the late 1960's, in a quaint San Francisco neighborhood less than a mile square, a creative movement emerged that would ignite a musical genre. What would come to be coined "the San Francisco Sound" served as the soundtrack for a counter-culture revolution that would forever challenge the perception of the American ideal. This movement climaxed in a single California season known as the Summer of Love, in a neighborhood that provided a canvas for this artistic burst of imagination: Haight-Ashbury. 5/21/2019 609408422188 Three Days of Hamlet 2012 A hero's journey from the most unlikely of sources, a Shakespeare in Love for the reality set...What makes this first-person doc so unique is the hero's personal narrative; an actor/manager, dealing with the "ghost" of his father, both real and imagined. Taking place over three days, they rehearse and perform a stage reading of Shakespeare's classic -- in this day of mixed media and cultural attention deficit, a monumental task that is rendered gracefully. As the lives of the players juxtapose over their characters, what results is a fascinating look at how, once again, art illuminates life. By holding the mirror up to ourselves, we illuminate the world around us. "Powers Stehanie Hyde-White Alex Chambalain Richard" Documentary; Drama

5/14/2019 810017880416 Afghan Cycles 2019 What lengths would you go to in order to ride a bicycle? Following a new generation of young Afghan women cyclists, Afghan Cycles uses the bicycle to tell a story of women's rights - human rights - and the struggles faced by Afghan women on a daily basis, from discrimination to abuse, to the oppressive silencing of their voices in all aspects of contemporary society. These women ride despite cultural barriers, despite infrastructure, and despite death threats, embracing the power and freedom that comes with the sport. Afghan Cycles follows members of the National Cycling Team in Kabul, and young riders in the Bamiyan region who are using mountain bikes to commute to school and run errands. For all of them, the bicycle is a symbol of freedom. But sometimes, the danger and obstacles can prove too much, as we learn when one of the main characters flees to France to secure a better situation and future for herself and her family.

5/14/2019 810162034986 Survivor: Heroes vs. Healers vs. Hustlers (Season 35) 2017 "OUTWIT, OUTPLAY, OUTLAST

The first-time Survivor castaways, including NFL player Alan Ball, a marine, an Olympic swimmer, a social worker, a surf instructor, and a celebrity assistant, are divided into tribes based on the positive traits most often associated with them by others: courage, compassion and tenacity. Together - and against each other - they battle-it-out for a chance to win a $1 million grand prize and to be crowned Sole Survivor. Survivor: Heroes v. Healers v. Hustlers adds new twists that change the game: A one-round-only super idol tossed into the game during the opening marooning, a new system for hidden immunity idol clues using tree carvings and paintings, and a return to the classic revote system. The format of the penultimate Tribal Council, with four players remaining, was also changed; in lieu of a vote, the winner of the final immunity challenge was to assign additional immunity to another castaway, with the remaining two competing in a fire-making challenge to determine the third finalist. Host Jeff Probst
