10/1/2019 889290604620 Amazing Race S20 2012 Eleven teams race over 36,000 miles across 22 cities and five continents in the 20th installment of THE AMAZING RACE. "Big Brother" contestant alums Brendon Villegas and Rachel Reilly, a pair of United States Border Patrol agents, married couple and Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey clowns, a set of twins, and seven other duos sprint across the globe for a chance to win $1,000,000. Facing physical and mental challenges combined with the pressure of fierce competition, the teams find themselves skydiving in Argentina, training with Maasai warriors in Tanzania, racing through Africa's "Garden of Eden" and searching through King Ludwig II's quarters in the German castle that was the inspiration for "Sleeping Beauty." The teams experienced some tasty tests as they played Sushi Bingo in Japan, and Name that Salami in Italy. At the end of the worldwide trek, which included first-time visits to Paraguay and Azerbaijan, the winning team tied the record for winning the most legs in a season single. To find out which team succeeded and made history, watch THE AMAZING RACE Season 20 on DVD! Reality TV

9/17/2019 889290392787 Who Killed Atlanta's Children? 2000 From 1979 to 1981, 29 African-American male children, in metro-Atlanta were either found murdered or reported missing. The cases plagued the city until Wayne Williams was convicted of two murders in 1982. Authorities deemed all 29 of the cases closed and hoped his incarceration would put an end to the serial killings. Beguiled by utter frustration and the haunting grief of the mothers Spin magazine editor Ron Larson (GREGORY HINES) and reporter Pat Laughlin (JAMES BELUSHI) travel to Atlanta in search of the truth. But what they were left with was the knowledge that all of the children had been killed in different ways in five different counties, and the only connecting link was that they were all black and poor. In their pursuit to find answers, Larson and Laughlin nearly lose their lives and are left to find an answer to the glaring question, "Who Killed Atlanta's Children?" 11/5/2019 853342008803 The Last Photograph 2019 In Tom Hammonds briefcase was the last photograph taken of him and his son Luke. A moment of happiness caught on camera: father and son at a dinner together days before Christmas. The photo was to become Tom's most treasured possession, for the day after it was taken, his son Luke boarded Pan Am flight 103 to New York. Tom decides to hunt down the thieves and to find the last photograph. During his search, Tom tries to come to terms with what had happened ten years before. He had never been able to talk about it, not to his best friend nor to anyone else. The pursuit for the photograph reignites those days and he begins to recollect the months that lead to the tragedy. How his son had persuaded him to take the trip to New York and spend Christmas with his first love whom he had met just three months before. The film moves gently from past to present. Will he find the thieves and in turn find the photograph? And will his search help regain the sanity he lost on that murderous night?
